$52,000 OUTLAY?

City Delays Verdict On 26 Vehicles

The council Monday night balked at City Manager George Watt's recommendation for the immediate purchase of 26 brand new vehicles at a low bid of $52,694 and by 3-2 vote held their verdict over for more deliberation at next week's study session.

Councilmen Joseph Verducci and Francis Pacelli argued long and loudly with Mayor Micheal DeBernardi and Councilman Edward Dennis on the feasibility of purchasing all the vehicles at once. Councilman Bob St. Clair went along with Verducci and Pacelli and voted that the project required "more looking into."

Watts, backed by the recommendations of the police and fire chiefs and the city garage foreman, recommended the blanket purchase of municipal vehicles to replace 17 time-worn city sedans and trucks which date back some 10 to 20 years.

The 52,694 for the purchase of the 26 vehicles from the low bidder, Neville Ford, would come from the Shop Revolving Funds, established in last year's budget talks by using surplus funds Under this shop plan, instituted by Watts, the new vehicles would "pay for themselves" over a period of a few years by means of the motor pool plan of centralized use and maintenance of all city vehicles.

Basically, this motor pool will mean that each department, instead of getting individual vehicle allowances each year, will charge its vehicle services to the central revolving fund on a time-used and maintenance-cost basis. Watts says this plan, used in many other cities, will build up a surplus of money in the revolving fund. This surplus can be used through the years to purchase new vehicles and will in no way deprive other departments of budget needs or hinder the capital outlay improvements program.

Watts pointed out that his recommendation for the standardization of city vehicles (all the same type models) would save much maintenance costs and be more feasible in the replacement of vehicle parts.

This new Shop Revolving Fund now contains $40,000 which would be the biggest chunk of the $52,694 needed for the 26 new vehicles.

Watts explained that instead

City Battles McKeon Tract Grading Noise

Night-time grading disturbances again were brought to the attention of the city council Monday night by Mrs. Marye Albert, 3 Royce Way.

Complaining that the evening noises from St. Francis Heights subdivision were still "loud and depriving us of our sleep," Mrs. Albert asked the council to once again order the McKeon company to restrict its operations at a reasonable hour.

George McKeon, from the audience, said he had instructed his contractor, the H. Earl Parker company, to work away from the Eastmoor avenue areas and near Skyline during evening hours. After this week, McKeon pointed out, all nighttime operations should be in the southern areas.

The council weeks ago answered many public protests against the grading noise by instructing McKeon to halt these late-hour operations.

But the Parker contractor apparently has disregarded McKeon's orders.

Tuesday night, Councilmen Bob St. Clair and Frank Pacelli and City Manager George Watts personally called a halt

TO STAY OR NOT TO STAY?

Showdown On May 19 Firmed By Council

The city council by 3-2 vote Monday night officially ordered a special election on May 19 to let residents of Daly City decide on whether sales tax should continue here.

The election will be consolidated with the school trustee elections the same day but on a separate ballot.

Councilman Edward Dennis made the motion Monday for the sales tax showdown. He was supported by Mayor Micheal DeBernardi and Councilman Bob St. Clair. Voting against the election were Councilmen Francis Pacelli and Joseph Verducci.

Pacelli and Verducci, along with then Councilman Del Wilson, voted sales tax into existence here early last year. DeBernardi and ex-Councilman Sanford Vickers were against this move, claiming they wanted the decision put to the voters instead of being decided by council verdict alone.

The proposition on the May 19 ballot on sales tax will be phrased: "Shall the sales and use taxes in Daly City be repealed?"

City Attorney Paul Hupf explained to the council that the ballot proposition involves city ordinance 463 (sales tax) and city ordinance 464 (use tax), but does not concern itself with the third ordinance here which would allow the city to keep its sales tax revenues should San Mateo County adopt a countywide sales tax. The council feel this latter ordinance would prevent the city from losing the bulk of sales tax funds to the county in the event the countywide tax is authorized.

The council is split evenly on sales tax. Dennis and St. Clair pledged repeal of the issue in their election campaigns last year. DeBernardi's stand was to put the matter to a vote of the people. Pacelli and Verducci have been for the sales tax from the beginning, claiming it will continue to lower property taxes and provide funds for capital outlay improvements.

RESERVOIR, FIRE DEPT. BIDS OPENED

Bidders by far outnumbered citizens Monday night as the city council opened bids on Reservoir No. 6, some 77 items of fire department equipment, and two fire pumper trucks.

All the bids were referred to the city manager for checking and for his recommendation to the council by its March 23 regular meeting.

Six companies filed bids for the reservoir project, ranging from a low of $98,356 to a high of $113,146.

There were 13 bidders on fire department equipment, many of them bidding on only a few of the 77 items.

Eight firms submitted bids on the two new fire pumper trucks—one to be purchased immediately and the second in about six months. These bids ranged from $19,066 to $29,806.

THIERS WORK TO BE DONE: ASSESSMENT

The council Monday night, after months of attempts to get three property owners to go along with the long-delayed improvements project on Thiers street at Vista Grande School, called for the establishment of an assessment district to get the job done.

In so moving, the city rejected earlier bids on the project. Both the school district and city have been agreeable to pay their share of work, but the three landowners, north and south of the street which must be paved to provide access to the school and to the easterly city limits, said they wouldn't pay for their share on improvements fronting their property.

The school currently has only a sidewalk access for students off Thiers at the school's southerly boundary.

In other main business Monday, the council:

1. Referred to the city manager and parks and recreation commission the protests of Old Glory Post 2044, VFW, on its claim of "restricted" use of War Memorial Building. The group through Commander Del Wilson and Adjutant R. F. Brulez, said it still needs use of the community center twice a month instead of being cut down to once a month meetings by the parks and recreation staff. Both the Post and its Auxiliary must meet separately under VFW policy and they claim they need two meetings a month as in the past. Parks-Rec Director Dee Van Nest said his reasons for rec-

'Strange' Woman In Bedroom Is Their Landlady

A Daly City husband returned home Saturday night to find a strange woman in his bed.

Lester L. Smith, 354 Irvington street, and his family discovered their unannounced visitor about 11:48 p.m.

The lady, who apparently had a little too much to drink, turned out to be their landlord who lives in San Francisco. She said she got confused and thought she was still living at the Irvington street home. Police Officer Richard Sims politely sent her home in a cab.

3 'Loiterers' Here Sentenced To County Jail

Municipal Judge Charles Becker sentenced three San Francisco men to five days in county jail and one year probation Tuesday on charges of "loitering" outside Pacific Market, Mission and Flournoy streets, early Friday evening.

The unemployed trio, each with long arrest records in San Francisco, were picked up by DC police after market manager Don Ursini reported them lingering outside the store about 8:20 p.m.

Police believe the trio, William Tew, 43; George Van Brunt, 52, and Patrick Russell, 32, were "casing the place" for a possible burglary try, Officer Richard Sims said.

RECORD PACE

$1.8 Million In New Buildings Last Month

Marks continued to fall last month as new construction in Daly City began on projects totaling $1,891,905 in valuation, according to the city building inspector.

One hundred and fifty-five building permits were issued here in February, 130 of these for new homes (mostly Doelger and McKeon) valued at $1,852,950.

Last month's total included 16 dwelling alterations, costing $27,550; one apartment alteration, $4000; three commercial alterations, $4360; four signs, $1845; and one fire damage home repair, $1200.

This year's record-splitting building pace here should continue and break the city mark of $13,762,860 in new construction during 1958.

In January, 110 building permits were issued in Daly City with a valuation of $1,341,845. The December total amounted to 129 permits for construction valued at $1,497,973.

Chamber Adds Ten Members To Its Rolls

Chamber of Commerce's membership drive, spurred by School Superintendent Ed Morgan, has produced 10 new members.

They are: Val Connolly of Val's Redwood Room, Dr. Margaret L. Cariss, W. Lansing Rothschild of Yellow Cab, Systematic Savings and Loan company, Theodore V. Tronoff, Charles W. Maroosis of Westlake Jewelers, Kockos Realty, Gene Comptons, Alex Corids and son, and Johnny H. Swanson of Westlake Bowl.

The chamber meets this Thursday noon at Westlake Joe's for a regular session. Persons wishing information on membership should call Pete Markovich, PL 5-2262.

Petrocchi Says Curfew Problem 'Not Bad' Here

Police Chief Roland Petrocchi last Thursday night reported to the city council that Daly City has "no serious" juvenile problems in general and at Swanson's Westlake Bowl in particular.

The chief, citing crime reports on juveniles the past three year and from the time the bowling plant opened, showed councilmen that the city delinquency rate actually is below that of other nearby communities and that his department is enforcing its 10 p.m. juvenile curfew with solid cooperation from bowling alley officials and other business proprietors.

The council ordered Petrocchi's report two weeks ago after Councilman Bob St. Clair said numerous "incidents" at the Bowl made him wonder if the city had an "extreme" juvenile problem there and if the police department was strict with its curfew enforcement.

Petrocchi, saying that his department had been "lenient" and "not real tough" on enforcing the curfew ordinance, reminded that if the situation gets out of hand that his department would take appropriate action. But his statistics on juvenile reports from the Bowl

Augie Benassini, 16-Year Police Veteran, Dies

August C. "Augie" Benassini, a member of the Daly City Police Department for 16 years, succumbed to cancer Monday at Kaiser Hospital in San Francisco.

A native of Colma, Benassini had lived here all his life. He resided in Daly City at 299 Willits street.

Augie joined the police department in January of 1943. He became an inspector in 1951 and was promoted to sergeant two years later.

He was a member of the Peninsula Peace Officers Association and the Veteran Firemen's Association of Daly City.

Survivors are his wife, Lillian; his father, Peter Benassini; three sons, Robert Benassini, and William and Virgil Kraft; four sisters, Mrs. Pauline Parmisano, Mrs. Vivian Benedetti, Mrs. Inez Micheli, and Mrs. Rita Martini; and two grandchildren. His mother was the late Camille Benassini.

Special services were conducted at Lasswell's Wednesday night under the auspices of the Veteran Firemen's Association and the Peninsula Peace Officers Association. Fellow officers will act as pallbearers this Thursday morning.

JUHS BUDGET MUST BE CUT SOME $80,000

High school trustees got their first peek at the district's proposed '59-'60 budget Monday night — a record $1,816,390 sum that needs some careful trimming.

Business Manager Fred Goodell's rough draft failed to balance by some $80,000—as expected income next school year is $1,736,675.

District Supt. Ed Morgan said his staff is busy going over the departmental requests to bring the budget into balance.

Morgan said there will be no big tax increase, because the total levy won't be more than a few cents off the current $1.45 rate.

The district already is at its maximum $1.35 general purpose tax. Morgan said the slight increase might come in bond retirement taxes. The current $1.45 tax rate includes 4 cents for teacher retirement, and five cents for civic center tax.

State Treasurer Bert Betts To Speak Here

The North End Democratic Club will hold its next regular meeting on Wednesday, March 18, at 8p.m. at Westlake School.

Guest speaker will be Bert Betts, treasurer of the state of California. The meeting is open to the public.

Purse Snatched At Westlake Bowl By Boy About 8

A boy about 8 years old fled Westlake Bowl Saturday at 7:15 p.m. with a white leather purse belonging to Gertrude Harmon, 39, of 752 Maddux drive, Broadmoor.

The woman said she was playing the pin-ball machine in the rear of the establishment when she turned around, noticed her purse missing and saw the boy running for the front door.

She said she had $18 and valuable identification papers in the purse.

Police searched the area but could not locate the suspect.

Month-Old Baby Boy Succumbs In Crib Here

A month-old Daly City infant was pronounced dead on arrival at Junipero Serra Hospital last Sunday morning a few minutes after his frantic parents found him lifeless in his crib.

Victim was Robert Martin Penwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Penwell, 130 Abbot avenue. Cause of death was being investigated by the coroner's office.

Police Officer Les Bastedo, first on the scene, was immediately joined by firemen from Company 2 with their resuscitator equipment. When their efforts failed, they ordered the infant taken to Junipero Serra hospital.

FOREMAN Dave Cafferata of city street department explains to Councilman Edward Dennis plans for expanding the municipal corporation yard at Citrus and Niantic streets north of Jefferson High athletic field. The old city garage will be used for a central purchasing warehouse. Buildings planned include a new garage, an automotive shop and an equipment storage plant. This will be the headquarters for the city's new central motor pool which figures to save each department funds on the basis of shared maintenance and vehicle standardization.

RENOVATION PROGRESS

Jeff Hi Gym, Pool Work Is Authorized

High school trustees Monday night awarded contracts for putting a new roof on the Jefferson High gym and the overhaul of the school swimming pool's filtration system.

Low bidders got the projects in both cases. Regal Roofing Company, which bid $7211, will remove the dangerous tile from the gym roof and replace it with safer material sometime this summer.

C. R. Reichel Engineering Company for $4665 will handle the pool project — the first time this has been done since the pool was constructed, reportedly about 1938. Supt. Ed Morgan said this work would take about two weeks this spring

The removal of the tile was recommended by structural engineers and the state fire marshal following the earthquake here in 1957. The gym itself completely meets state safety requirements.

The two jobs authorized Monday by trustees marked the first part of the district's long-standing plans to renovate the

DC Hi Schools Seek Eighteen More Teachers

Jefferson High School District is conducting interviews for 18 teachers who are needed for the school year beginning this September.

Principals John Mongan of Jefferson and Glenn South of Westmoor expect to complete the interviews by March 23.

Four of the 18 new teachers will be assigned to Jefferson. Two of the 18 will be replacements. One Westmoor teacher is resigning and a Jeff instructor intends to take another teaching job on the collegiate level.

Westmoor presently has 61 teachers and Jefferson 58, according to Supt. Ed Morgan.

The board of trustees Monday night, in another personnel matter, hired Mrs. Betty Richardson as accounts payable clerk in the district office.

Police Chief Says Curfew Problem 'Small'

backed his statement that there is no serious problem there.

"When you consider that 39,000 people use the Bowl facilities each month and that our overall city juvenile delinquency rate seems to be decreasing despite more population, I don't feel a get-tough curfew policy is warranted. As long as most of our kids behave, we don't have to put on the pressure. And as far as the Bowl is concerned, its officials have been efficient in informing the youngsters of curfew restrictions and have worked with us right along."

Petrocchi's report included a rundown on the number of "incidents" reported by the Bowl to police since Swanson's opened last October. Of 20 reports, ten involved incidents outside the Bowl, and many of the 20 involved adults. This was from last October 26 to February 28, Petrocchi said.

The chief said one measure instituted recently at his request was the use of sign-up sheets at the Bowl. Youngsters are required to ink their names, addresses and whether or not they desire to bowl when they enter the establishment. At 10 p.m. now the teenagers are on their way home.

Petrocchi said the two college men and Swanson's special Bowl officers who supervise the conduct of teenagers were doing a good job. He also reminded that the Bowl has a direct line to police headquarters and that his patrolmen make regular nightly checks at the Bowl.

The chief said teenagers must be handled with tact to get their full cooperation. However, he said that there are always a few habitual troublemakers who spoil things for everybody.

"When we run into this type, the incorrigibles, we will lower the boom," the chief declared.

The council commended Petrocchi for his clarification of the "problem" and went along with his present policy of curfew enforcement.

Under present city ordinance, the curfew calls for juveniles to be off the streets from 10 p.m. until 6 a.m. It contains a "loitering" provision which is somewhat flexible in definition but which can be interpreted strictly to curb violators.

WHAT'S DOING

A. C. Latno, your Telephone Manager in Daly City

Most folks here in town never think of the telephone company when they see jet fighters tracing vapor trails through the sky. But the fact is that phone people are helping to speed up the nation's air defense by making it work almost automatically. We're building a network of telephone lines that are the nerves of a new system called SAGE. They carry signals from radar outposts to control centers in a flash. There, Air Forcemen see in an instant what's in the air, and can use SAGE's phone lines to order jets or missiles up without a second's delay. We watch over these lines with care, to make sure they're always working for your safety and security.

Moving soon? Then now's the time to take advantage of an offer that lets you get the extension phone you've always wanted, and save money on the installation charge, too. Here it is: when we install the phone in your new home, we'll also put in an extension (or two or three!) at no extra installation cost. Just call our business office. We'll be glad to take your order today.

Jefferson plant.

Morgan explained that of Jefferson's 137,000 square feet of space, 80,000 feet is structurally safe by state standards. Architect Mario Ciampi has estimated that it will cost the district about $500,000 to bring the substandard parts of Jefferson up to structural safety par.

Trustees are still weighing whetner it will be more practical financially to renovate the plant instead of tearing down the defective areas and replacing them with new buildings.

The areas of the school which meet state standards are the gym, the cafeteria, the metal shop and the woodshop, and the annex (which houses academic classrooms and two shops). The main building and the auto shop (total of 37,000 square feet) fail to meet state structural requirements. All areas of the school except the cafeteria were, built before the state program was authorized.

Morgan and trustees think that by adding one or two classrooms to the cafeteria building, more classrooms in the annex, and by doubling up shop classes, that the overload of students in the main building can be reduced and that the costly reconstruction can be averted.

Jeff's maximum student assignment under the state aid program, based on 80 square feet for each student, is 1100 pupils. Morgan noted that in many of the structurally safe parts of the school there is room for additional classrooms — a move that would relieve the student assignments to the main building and the auto shop.

Replacement of the main building and the auto shop would cost much more than the $500,000 Ciampi estimates that renovation would necessitate.

Morgan and his staff have kicked the Jefferson decision back and forth for some time with state school planning officials. One of the reasons their verdict has been delayed is that in order to meet district enrollment and speed the new schools on the Coast, the district had to delay the Jeff project so that it could qualify for state funds for the new schools on the square footage per youngster formula.

Morgan says the school board should be ready soon to make its decision on renovating or reconstructing Jeff. Renovation appears the most feasible in view of the district's tight schedule in qualifying for state funds.

In other business Monday, trustees:

1. Auctioned off six houses and a double garage along San Mateo avenue in Sharp Park south of the district's Oceana High School site at a total price of $6725. This money goes into the district's bond fund and just about completes the sale of homes purchased by the district to make room for access to the school.

2. Approved Ciampi's site plan for the Oceana project, which includes his first increment classroom specifications and master plans for future development. The first increment will include 14 academic classrooms, four science rooms, three commercial rooms, four industrial arts rooms, one homemaking area, a music room, a gym, and a multi-use room which will serves as a special exercise room, for cafeteria service, and for after-school and evening functions. The second increment will include a smaller gym, a library, a kitchen and snack bar, an administrative headquarters, and a classroom for mentally retarded youngsters.

of an expected surplus of $85,000 at the start of this fiscal year, $65,000 of it going into capital outlay and $20,000 for emergency reserves, the city had $75,000 for capital outlay, $20,000 for reserve and an extra $40,000 in surplus, thus setting up the Shop Revolving Fund.

Verducci, vociferously countered by Dennis, said Watt's revolving fund was like "robbing Peter to pay Paul," an opinion shared by Pacelli. Both councilmen, while agreeing that the 17 old vehicles need to be replaced and that the motor pool idea is practical, said the idea of the central shop fund wasn't a means of making money but merely a matter of bookkeeping. In other words, Verducci and Pacelli feel the city departments still will be using the vehicles as much although the expenditures will be charged in the central budget instead of to the individual departmental budgets.

Verducci, suggesting that not all of the 26 new vehicles need be purchased at this time "in view of our economy efforts," said it was "the first time in history I've heard of any city buying so many new vehicles at one time." He also noted that by buying the same-type cars or "standardization" would discourage other bidders each year.

Watts said that at least eight cities he knew of had made "mass" vehicle purchases in the past five years.

Pacelli stated that it would be better to take care of the most serious vehicle needs now and replace the less essential vehicles later.

But DeBernardi and Dennis both demanded the full purchase, citing the "unsafe" status of the 17 old vehicles, particularly the police and fire vehicles.

Dennis said it would be "ridiculous to keep this obsolete equipment. We need all these vehicles now and by purchasing them we can save thousands of dollars under the revolving fund replacement plan."

The 26 vehicles recommended by Watts include seven police cars, a new car for the fire chief, six pickup trucks, one dump truck, nine four-door sedans and two station wagons. The sedans include one each for the city manager's office, the finance office, and the department of parks and recreation. Watts said that by purchasing these latter sedans, the city would save about $200 a month it presently costs in the budget for car allowances in these departments. Over a period of three years, Watts went on, these vehicles would be paid off, instead of the city paying out the $200 a month for car allowances.

Of the 17 old vehicles, two of which have more than 100,000 miles behind them, three are police cars and six are ancient pickup trucks. Many of these 17 were purchased as used vehicles.

Finance Director Joseph Arch reminded that the Revolving Shop Fund plan has proved financially "very worthwhile" in many cities. Under this idea vehicles are "rented" to city departments on a daily, hourly or mileage basis. These rates, Watts explained, absorb the usual maintenance, replacement and insurance costs and spread out these expenditures over a period of years.

PIN-BALL PLAYER ARRESTED AT WESTLAKE BOWL

Ronald A. Farotte, 20, an asbestos worker who lives at 657 Paris street, San Francisco, was arrested by Daly City police Sunday evening after he used an "altered" draft card to gain use of a pin-ball machine at Westlake Bowl.

Officer Al Nicolini booked Farotte about 10 p.m. as the former was making his curfew check. Farotte's driver's license showed his true age. He admitted he changed his draft card to make his age read 23.

Nicolini said the bowling alley was not at fault since it has signs on the premises indicating that minors are not allowed to use the "amusement only" pin-ball machines by city ordinance. Farotte admitted he had seen these signs and that he changed the date on his draft card before showing it to bowling center officials who had asked for verification of his age.

ommending the group meet one night a month were because their attendance had been small and that War Memorial is "overburdened" with requests for room use by many organizations. Van Nest told the newspaper that at least 50 to 60 meetings are held at the center each month. 2. Agreed to builder Henry Doelger's request that Lynnewood drive in Westlake be renamed Lake Merced boulevard. Post office officials said the change could be executed without too much of a problem to residents in regard to mailing. Public works department also concurred that the change wouldn't create any major problems.

3. Read letter from Westlake Improvement Association on its backing of the city-favored Route Y-T for the freeway. WIA earlier had a petition with 7000 signatures against any freeway route through Westlake.

4. Held over pending conference with state highway officials report on drainage costs in area near Thornton beach.

5. Delayed annexation request on 10 lots filed by Thomas Callan Jr. pending more complete information from the applicant.

6. Held off request for abandonment of portion of Pierce street in lieu of city and county study of costs for access road west of M. Pauline Brown site.

7. Was notified by chamber of commerce of its appointments to Golden Jubilee committee and letter from DC-Colma Lions that Mel Battye would be its representative. 8. Heeded letter from Jefferson Elementary School District asking that the city consider school needs in Westlake Unit 11, tentative map of which soon goes to the planning commission.

Foreign Car Hits Cadillac; Driver Dies

Daly City's first traffic fatality of the year was recorded Thursday night, an hour after a Volkswagen crashed into the rear of a Cadillac on Junipero Serra boulevard at 90th street.

Sonia Shirley, 24, San Francisco stenographer of 1817 California street, died in the ambulance en route to Mission emergency hospital.

Officer John Van Otten said Miss Shirley's car rammed the Cadillac driven by Mrs. Alice C. Abramson, 45, of Mill Valley, as the latter was waiting for the auto ahead of her in the northbound lane to make a left turn onto 90th street. This was about 7:20 p.m.

Miss Shirley was thrown against the windshield of her car. She was rushed to Junipero Serra Hospital, then scheduled for transfer to Mission emergency.

Mrs. Abramson complained of neck pains but otherwise was unhurt. She was cleared of any responsibility for the mishap.

There is a new look at KPIX in their daytime programming and we like it. Feeling quite strongly that the homemaker at home during the day wants something more stimulating than a steady diet of quiz shows and movies, we were pleased to learn about KPIX's new daytime program set-up. Doing some quick addition we came up with a total of 3½ hours (weekdays) devoted daily to local "live" programming, which is certainly an impressive total.

The newest addition to Channel five's schedule is "Noon Day News" with Wanda Ramey and John Weston, and the program is certainly a bright addition. We decided to drop by the studios and find out first hand their plans for the program. We found them both most entusiastic about the show and filled with plans to make the program something out of the ordinary and not just another newscast. They are certainly doing just that. Striving for a flexiable format the show bring important local, national, and international news interspersed with other features such as fashions, interviews, critics corner. In fact, the program is assembled like a daily newspaper and you aren't just sure what will be on the next page. Both personable young people are talented newscasters, skillful at interviewing and do an outstanding job of ad libbing which gives the show just the proper balance of informality and warmth.

Charlie Dugdale's show has been increased a half hour until 9:30 a.m. Since its inception we feel the program has steadily improved and Charlie has developed into a smooth master of ceremonies. One addition we would like to see on the program is a weekly segment of the show devoted regularly to the pre-school set with the program conducted by an experienced teacher.

A new look too, to KPIX's Dance Party in the afternoon with a talented and handsome new master of ceremonies — Dick Stewart, who was also eager to talk about future plans of his show. In the offing are plans for remotes from various high schools around the Bay Area. They plan to present class leaders of various schools, the school press, perhaps an outstanding artist with some of his paintings or a future scientist with a science project. We like this approach to the program because we believe it presents a side of young people that we know is there, but doesn't make the headlines.

We like to encourage local television programs. There is a wealth of material in the Bay Area, and what more effective way to tell that story than by television. Tune in on the new show. We think you'll be pleased too.

The fairer sex takes over this week—the 47th birthday of the Girl Scouts in this country.

We need not recite the many merits of the work of this organization in teaching girls the values of working together for the betterment of all.

Statistics show the popularity of the training: One out of every seven girls in the United States belongs to a Girl Scout unit. Some 2½ million girls are members at present.

Daly City is proud of its Girl Scouts and their leaders.

There efforts are worthwhile and a great asset to the community.

OPEN HOUSE EXHIBIT

Ben Franklin Kids Invite All To 'Museum Of American History'

Eighth graders at Ben Franklin School will focus more attention on Jefferson Elementary School District on Thursday evening, March 19, when they invite the public to visit their "Museum of American History."

The exhibition, featuring hundreds of relics and custumes from American history, will be open to all from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. on March 19 at Ben Franklin. Special preview will be held the night before for the press and school administrators.

In charge of the exhibition is Ben Franklin teacher P. B. Simmons. His eighth grade social studies and language arts students will act as lecturers and guides for the 31 sections of the museum. They will be clothed in costumes of individuals and groups that contributed to American history and culture. In addition, several firms will present progress displays.

Said Simmons: "We are attempting to show the positive side of education through a project which builds a deep appreciation for American culture. We feel that you will agree, when you witness the display."

The museum could win national attention again for Ben Franklin. Late last year the students wrote and published a book on U. S. presidents. Dwight D. Eisenhower and state education officials noted the achievement with letters of commendation.

Old Photos Needed For 'Museum' Here

All local residents who have pictures of Daly City "in the old days" are asked to contact P. B. Simmons at Ben Franklin School PL 5-7862.

These ancient photos will be an asses to the "Museum of American History" exhibit, to be presented on March 19 at Ben Franklin by its eight grade students.

ACTIVITIES TOLD

Daly City Area Girl Scouts Observe 47th National Week

This is National Girl Scout Week — marking the 47th anniversary of the founding of the group in Savannah, Georgia.

Theme of the week is "You Can Count On Her To Be Creative" . . . in the arts, in homemaking and in community service.

The Girl Scout program, for young ladies 7 through 17, has a current membership of 2,530,000 girls and 765,000 men and women. More than half of all the Girl Scouts are Brownies, ages 7 through 9. One out of seven girls in this country is a Girl Scout.

In the Daly City District of the North San Mateo County Girl Scout Council, there are 997 Girl Scouts in 74 troops. A breakdown here shows 587 Brownies, 365 Intermediates, and 45 Seniors.

The adult members of the council began their celebration of Girl Scout Week with the annual council meeting Monday night at Mills High School. The program featured the eight Senior Girl Scouts who will represent the council at the Colorado Springs "Roundup" this summer.

This Saturday, March 14, the Senior Scouts of Troop 23 and Ship 13 will begin their "carwash" money-raising project to finance the "Roundup" trip. Troop 28 will be at the Richfield Station, 87th and Sullivan near Mayfair Market. Ship 13 will be at Conci's Shell Station, Hillside and Mission, Daly City.

More Twins On Fertile Fairlawn

Westlake's Fairlawn avenue appears to be quite a productive neighborhood.

In last week's paper was an item on the twins born to Mr. and Mrs. Claude A. Haertel, 48 Fairlawn. A few minutes after the newspaper was circulated, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Pratt, 231 Fairlawn, phoned to note that they, too, had twins last month — also at Stanford Hospital.

The Pratt's greeted Claudia Diane and Fred Joseph the IV. Fred senior is a Southern Pacific clerk.

On March 25, 1861, a Confederate Marine Corps was organized in Richmond, Va.

We got a frantic call from a Westlake gal last week who said she sure nopes the sheriff soon solves the August Norry murder case.

She claims the many blonde ladies in this area are real nervous cause everyone keeps giving them the eye, more so since police pinpointed the slayer as a blondish female.

Tried to explain to the Westlake woman that blondes naturally attract a lot of attention.

Anyway, if the situation is this serious, we feel many of these innocent blondes should dye their locks—at least until the Norry mystery is cleared up. There aren't too many natural blondes, anyway.

One other point. The female who did away with Norry probably has dyed her hair by this time.

Quite a bit of sound and fury at Westlake Joe's recently when Dr. Earl Herald, Daly City resident and curator of Steinhart Aquarium, brought along a few reptiles to show the Chamber of Commerce.

Councilman Bob St. Clair got playful and wrapped a lengthy boa constrictor around him and entered the bar. One of the lady patrons thereupon shrieked and screamed and even threatened to sue for the "frightening experience."

But all parties quickly agreed it was a harmless joke and the saga of the serpent ended harmoniously.

They-should-know-better department: State Senator Dick Dolwig and Councilman Frank Pacelli produced a pair of laughable miscues at Monday's city council meeting. Dolwig, in a letter regarding the removal of the Mission street car tracks, referred to DC's city manager as Otis Calhoun (director of public works).

Pacelli, in another matter, called City Attorney Paul Hupf the "district attorney."

Dolwig can be excused because he's far from the scene. Pacelli may have been jumping the gun. Hupf would make a fine DA, here or anywhere.

Hopmans Mark Debut Of New Appliance Shop

Grand opening ceremonies will be held this Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Ted and Florence Hopman's new appliance sales and service store, now located at 6309 Mission street next to Hilltop Market.

Ted and his wife have been in the appliance business here for 31 years, starting in 1928 with service operations at their home.

In 1945 they opened a sales and service store at 6299 Mission, at the corner of Wellington avenue.

They handle all small electrical appliances and offer radio and television sales and service.

Free orchids will go to all ladies at the new store during the three-day kickoff event.

Brownies Plant Plum Tree At Colma School

The Daly City Garden Club's "Junior Gardeners," Brownie Troop 354, sponsored by the garden club, under the direction of Mrs. Alfred Marquez, Junior Gardener chairman, planted a Japanese plum tree at the Colma Elementary School last Thursday, in observance of Conservation Week.

The 13 Brownies have been very active junior gardeners during the past year. The garden club, with the cooperation of the troop's leader, Mrs. John Crowhurst, have maintained a monthly meeting with the troop to further the aims of the Junior Gardeners who have affectionately dubbed themselves the "Sunflower Seeds." In the past several months they have made denim litterbags for their families, planted succulents and cacti, made valentine flower arrangements, collected leaves on a field trip, entered scrapbooks and horticulture in the DC Garden Club's Flower Show, and have a continuing project of writing to all of the 49 states for literature and information regarding flowers and state trees. The response to the Brownie letters from all over the United States has been very successful.

The Junior Gardeners will put all this to use in the future in the local club's flower show as an exhibit. Garden clubs throughout the country sponsor Junior Gardeners and most amateur and sponsored flower shows have a junior division to fulfill a vital obligation to the younger set.

BIRTHDAY WEEK

Girl Scouts, Community Salute Margaret Damon, 'True' Leader

By Servart Ojakian

"You Can Count On Her — Can She Count On You?"

Mrs. Margaret Damon, skipper for Mariner Girl Scout Ship 13, has given her girls every reason in the world to count on her as a true and steadfast leader.

Her Girl Scout activities started in November of 1948, and have continued year after year. Now, ten years later, eight of her Senior Mariners will complete their advance work and bid farewell. New ones will take their places and ship 13 will go on because it is built upon a firm foundation. Her girls have had an exciting and adventurous experience as Girl Scouts, and leave with wonderful memories.

During this 47th Girl Scout anniversary, March 12, tribute is due Mrs. Damon as an outstanding leader, as girls throughout the nation honor the Girl Scouts' founder, Mrs. Juliette Low.

When Mrs. Damon's daughter, Susan, was 7 years old and eager to be a Brownie Scout, her mother decided she'd like to be in Scouting herself, and joined as a co-leader first. Soon she took over leadership of the troop. That was Troop 13, and now it's Ship 13, and for them a remarkably lucky number.

In 1955, when the Girl Scouts in Troop 13 were ready to go into Senior Scouting, they chose to become Mariners. The leaders taking over the helm had to become proficient in all things nautical. With her assistant leader Mrs. Violette Brown, Skipper Damon took a night school class with the Coast Guard Auxiliary. She learned the rules of water safety, navigation, use of small boats, and weather science. There were many things to learn about the laws of the sea, about knots, and splicing. A course in sailing was also completed. Mrs. Damon was an expert swimmer and had been life guard, but now she required to go through rigid tests to renew her life guard certificate.

Margaret Damon's activities in the Scouting program were many and varied. She was counselor at Day Camp at Mattrup five years; counselor for camps at Seaside near Sharp Park and Sneath Lane in San Bruno, and at Huddart Primitive Camp for more advanced girls in Intermediate Scouting; she was neighborhood chairman for the Broadmoor area in 1950. She has been a leader of leaders and acted as instructor in the training of such activities as camping, outdoor cooking, flag ceremonies, Scout ceremonies, and assisted many troops in teaching them program skills, crafts, and nature studies. She is also an ornithologist of some note and has taught others about bird-life.

The many trips enjoyed by the Girl Scouts in her troop include those to Big Basin, Sonora snow-trip, camping at Woodhaven, and a seven-day trip camp with the Wanderers to parts of Southern California.

She has been on many troop camp committees, and has been advisor for the Mariner Gams and its social functions. At present, she is working with the Oakland Mariner troop on a canoeing trip which she plans to take with them.

Mrs. Dagny Golladay, a close friend, says of her:

"To my knowledge, she is the only leader in our council who has carried her girls from Brownies, through Intermediates, and then through the Senior Scouting program."

The cooperation and patience of Ralph Damon, her husband, has contributed greatly to the success of the program. Last year, Mr. and Mrs. Damon purchased a snipe sailboat to be used primarily by the Mariners. On Saturdays or Sundays, the Girl Scouts go to Lake Merced and practice their skill in sailing.

During this Girl Scout birthday week, Daly City salutes Margaret Damon, as "the" outstanding leader of the community — because everyone can count on her.

State Income Tax Deadline Reminder Given By Cranston

The deadline for filing state income tax returns — Wednesday, April 15, should be circled on the calendar, State Controller Alan Cranston, chairman of the Franchise Tax Board, today reminded taxpayers.

"Everyone who received sufficient income during 1958 to require the filing of a state return should keep that date in mind. Forms have been mailed to all taxpayers who filed last year," Cranston said.

The tax board chairman pointed out that all single individuals who earned $2000 or more, and all married couples whose combined income was $3500 or more, must file returns.

"The board wishes to cooperate with taxpayers of the state in every possible way," Cranston declared. Taxpayers who need help with their returns may call at any of the local offices or write to the Franchise Tax Board office, 1025 P street Sacramento, for free assistance.

NATIONAL AWARD?

Big Mosaic Mural 'Final Touch' To DC's Vista Grande School

Jefferson Elementary School District's Vista Grande School will be entered in the National Honor Awards Program sponsored by the American Institute of Architects, according to Mario Ciampi, who has designed several of the district's schools.

A large mosaic mural—being done by the art staff, students and with the approval of Ciampi—will complete the building.

Mrs. Helen Cordell, art coordinator for the district, stated: "Art is an important consideration in the construction of any building. Staffs and students should be allowed to contribute as much as possible to enhance its beauty. For educational values, every school should have some piece of art work which has esthetic values bringing beauty and appreciation."

Two of the district's outstanding art students, Calvin Costa and Terry Flournoy from Benjamin Franklin School, along with Mrs. Cordell and Mrs. Richards, art teacher at Benjamin Franklin, designed the mosaic. Roxie Shupe Marilyn Derham and others cut tile and arranged the designs which are embedded in cement. The mosaic is composed of imported Venetian glass tile, called "Tesserae," and has been combined with rock to give texture. The mosaic will be located on a wall in the inner courtyard.

The mosaic is an abstraction—no recognizable objects. The forms and designs of the mosaic are taken from the forms suggested by the patterns of walks, columns, and the general architecture of the building. The color scheme is the same as that of the building, with particular emphasis on the colors used in the tile designs.

Other similar projects are underway in the district—a mosaic for Benjamin Franklin School and a three-dimensional clay mural for the blind children at Woodrow Wilson School.

Pisani Names Anderson To DC Bank Post

Charles N. Anderson, young San Franciscan who has lived five years in Asia and Europe since joining Bank of America 12 years ago, is the new head of operations and personnel at the bank's Daly City branch.

Announcing the appiontment this week, Manager Louis Pisani said Anderson succeeds Rudy Krevolt, promoted last month to operations officers at the California-Broadway branch in Redwood City.

Anderson was released from the Navy and joined Bank of America as a teller in May of 1947, spending the next five years at the Excelsior branch.

In July of 1952 he went to the Camp Mower military facility at Sasebo, Japan, as a junior officer and in 1954 was appointed assistant manager of the Kokura military facility.

Moving to Gotemba as assistant manager of the Camp Fuji military facility the following year, he traveled half-way around the world to France in 1956 to fill an assignment at the Paris branch.

Letters To The Editor

Mother Urges Bike Rack At Bowling Alley

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

Wednesday afternoons and Saturdays are busy days for the Westlake bowling alley, and especially so for the boys who use it those days.

Have you ever noticed the bicycles left all over the sidewalks? There is no stand furnished for them. In view of the fact there are so many boys using the alley, I do think a stand should be provided for their bikes.

My son's bike was stolen on his birthday while he was treating his bowling team to lunch in the Bowl's restaurant.

This letter will perhaps be of help in getting a stand. With a bike stand for these boys, the locks can be clamped on tight, and bikes will not be stolen.

Rescued Lad's Parents Thank All Who Helped

(Editor's Note: Following is letter to Daly City Fire Department from parents of a Palisades boy who was rescued two weeks ago from the cliff overlooking old Coast Highway).

Thanks for the many kindnesses, prayers, interest and untiring efforts shown by everyone which led to the rescue of our son, Bobby. This gratitude can never be put into words.

There is something wonderful and reassuring in the spontaneous response of people in a crisis that is not their own. People, most of whom were strangers, sacrificed their time, welfare, and personal duties in an untiring effort to help us.

Mr. Smith and I would like to express our gratefulness and thanks to everyone for the successful rescue which would have been impossible without them. Our only wish is that we could personally convey our thanks to all who helped and hope this letter will give you this message.

Sincerely,

Girl Scouts Issue 'Birthday Week' Vote Of Thanks

Dear Mr. Bradshaw:

On behalf of the Daly City-Colma District Girl Scouts, I wish to thank you for the courtesy and cooperation you have shown us during the past year in publishing our activities in your publications, the Westlake Times and The Record.

Mr. Roy Hurlbert, your news editor, has always been helpful in allowing us space for news as well as giving us photographic presentation.

The publicity has helped in making the public conscious of our organization's work.

On this 47th anniversary of the organization's founding, we, the Girl Scouts of this area, give our heartfelt thanks.

Sincerely,

Easter Seal Chairman Asks Full Support

"Contribute as much as you can. But even if you don't give a penny, please keep and use your Easter Seals."

Peter F. Miller, county seal chairman, made the above plea today during the second week of the fund-raising effort here for crippled children and adults.

He said that the Easter Seals recently mailed to all residents in the Westlake-Daly City area served two purposes.

First of all, he pointed out, the seals are reminders that funds are needed to provide medical care, therapy and other rehabilitation services for those that are physically handicapped.

Secondly, he added, the seals are meant to be used on packages and envelopes containing correspondence — to serve as year-around messages of help for the handicapped.

The county fund drive continues to Easter Sunday, March 29. This year's goal has been set at $50,000.

Judge Becker Proclaims 'ORT Day' For '59

"I do hereby proclaim the Fourth Day of March, 1959, to be ORT Day in San Mateo County in recognition of the vital and constructive work performed by Women's American ORT" is an excerpt of the proclamation signed this week by Municipal Judge Charles Becker of the San Mateo County in the presence of ORT Peninsula regional president, Mrs. Kurt Goldstrom, and Peninsula membership chairman, Mrs. Joseph Cooper.

ORT Day is the annual national observance held in each ORT (Organization for Rehabilitation Through Training) chapter throughout the country and is a day of reaffirmation of the ORT belief that vocational rehabilitation adds significant force to the striving of free men and free nations toward greater strength, security and independence.

ORT operates 500 vocational schools and workshops in 20 countries. It teaches industrial trades, and also, in most cases, academic courses to the poverty-stricken, the unskilled, the uprooted, that they may find economic security and more important, the economic independence — freedom from charity — that is prerequisite to personal independence.

DC Chess Club Loses 2 Meets

The Daly City Chess Club, competing in tournment play the past few weeks, has suffered its "lumps."

The locals recently lost to San Quentin and the Evans Club of San Bruno by identical 5-1 scores.

Playing for DC were Dr. J. Alden, S. Gelbert, C. Gonzalez, L. Korens, Capt. L. Meaney, R. F. Michalski, Lt. Col. O. Vogl and David Vogl.

The team was short a man in the last two meets — thus losing games by forfeit. Less than a year old, the DC Club has 12 points to its credit so far — a pretty fair record.

Heart Campaign Donors Can Mail To Postmaster

Vincent P. Murphy, Daly City postmaster, is an important collector for the San Mateo County Heart Association's current supplemental fund-raising drive, Richard Liberty of San Bruno, member of the association's public relations committee, announced today.

Although mailers were sent to Daly City families, the county's rapid population growth often obsoletes mailing lists, said Liberty.

"Under arrangements with the post office in Washington, it is easy for residents in Daly City to contribute to the heart fund," he said. "Anyone who was missed by our mailing may send their contribution either direct to our association at 181 Second avenue in San Mateo — or just mail it to 'HEART, care of postmaster, Daly City, California'."

Liberty explained that the cooperation of the post office department helps expedite the huge assortment of mail directed to the heart association at this time of year.

"Because the heart association must rely solely upon public support for its research and community programs, we hope that everyone in Daly City will contribute," Liberty said. "Only through continued support from all our families can we help rid the nation of its number 1 killer."

Colma Students Learn To Use Microscope

The boys and girls in Iola McKeown's class at the Colma K-6 School have a new microscope. Recently they had a demonstration of its makeup and use.

Dr. Peter Lerke of the Fish Research Department, Hooper Foundation, University of California on Parnassus avenue, San Francisco, visited the class to demonstrate the proper use of the microscope. He explained its mechanical parts, then the optical parts, and summarized the uses of the instrument.

VW Club Boss Calls Police On Members

The Volkswagen Club of California holds its regular monthly meetings on the fourth Thursday of each month. To VWCC members, this is common knowledge and is eagerly looked forward to each month. But sometimes the members are given a surprise which really makes them wonder "what next?"

Such on a surprise was sprung on them on White street at 87th in Broadmoor Thursday, February 26, when turning into White street, location of the club house, each VW was stopped by a brace of police cars and officers, who then proceeded to check each car for proper display of registration, the working order of tail lights, turn indicators, high and low beam on headlights, windshield wipers, and possession of a valid drivers license.

This safety check was conducted by members of the Broadmoor Police Department and sponsored as a surprise event by the VWCC President, Bob Fisse, under the direction of Dick McCoy, a member of the club and resident of Broadmoor. Twenty-four cars were checked, of which ninteen were given a rating of excellent; the remainder received a rating from average to poor for infractions such as no visible registration card, no front license plate, etc.

Members are scored by a point system which, along with points earned for participation in other activities and events, determines the best male member and female member of the year.

Second Annual Kite Derby Here March 21

The Department of Parks and Recreation announced today that it is joining forces with Lake Merced Optimist Club again this year in conducting the second annual Kite Derby to be held at Westlake Park and Colma School on March 21 at 1 p.m.

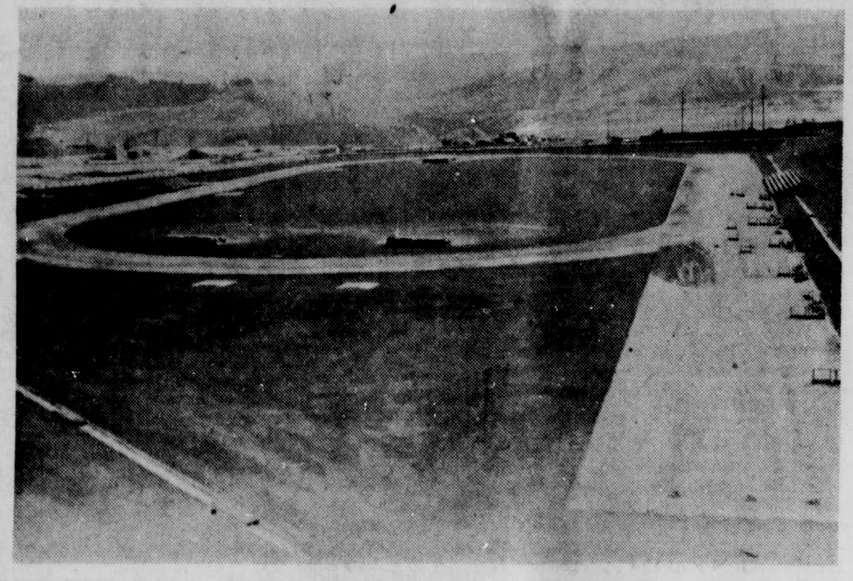
Kites may be entered in one of two divisions—homemade kites or commercial kites. All kites must have wooden frame of some type. This eliminates the "parachute" type kite. Children are advised against buying this type of kite to enter in the kite derby.

There will be three classes of competition: boys 11 years and under, boys 12-15 years, and girls 13 years and under.

Feature event in each contest will be for the kite going out the greatest distance within the 15-minute time allowance.

Other events are as follows: 1. The first kite to reach 60' height after signal is given to start launching. 2. The kite most directly overhead at the end of a specified time limit. 3. The most original and novel kite entered in the contest. 4. The smallest kite that wil fly (at least 60 ft.). 5. The largest kite that will fly (at least 60 ft.).

Kite building classes are being planned at local playgrounds during the week of March 16-20. See playground leaders for further details.



DALY CITY's Westmoor High can boast one of California's best track fields (above), located on the southeast tip of the school's vast property. Aided by this outstanding facility, the Ram varsity squad this season is a strong threat for Peninsula League honors.

City Cancels Adult Cage League Plans

Daly City Department of Parks and Recreation is dropping the Adult Class A Basketball League this year due to a lack of interest here.

Many of the teams which have participated in the league during its past operation have had a turnover in players. Only four teams have shown an interest in the 1959 program, and of these four, only one is a local team.

In 1958 ten teams participated here in what was termed one of the most successful and best operated leagues in the Bay Area.
